RUSSIAN ROMANCE

Kerry Stratton & Lang Ning Liu - pianist
October 7, 2011

MCP's 26th season opens with Maestro Kerry Stratton and the Salon Group Palm Court Orchestra performing a Tchaikovsky programme with Piano Concerto No. 1 and Symphony No. 4. Accomplished Pianist Lang Ning Liu offers listeners distinctively original concert experiences. She is hailed by the New York Times as "a sensitive, and extremely compelling artist".

DREAM A LITTLE DREAM

Chris Cigolea Jazz Band & Tony Hastings - vocalist
October 28, 2011

The Chris Cigolea Jazz Band is an ecstatically fun band. Their wide repertoire can make an audience get sentimental over an old-time ballad, boogie to a hot jump tune or swing to a classic jazz standard. From concert halls to dances, festivals to family parties, listeners and dancers agree - their infectious beat and enthusiasm will make any crowd move! Vocalist Tony Hastings will thrill you with his smooth and sultry vocal style. From bar room ballads and not-so-standard standards to hot and bubblin' swing, Tony's performances add a touch of sophistication to the Chris Cigolea's ensemble.

BACH TO BEBOP

Chris Donnelly - piano & Kornel Wolak - clarinet
November 18, 2011

A rare opportunity to hear jazz and classical (written and improvised music) in the same concert: Revered classical works such as Mozart's Clarinet Concerto, Gershwin's famous Rhapsody in Blue to Oscar Peterson's jazz classic Hymn to Freedom. All selections are supplemented with brief, light-hearted but descriptive presentations that include historical or personal perspectives on the music. Performed by two of Canada's rising virtuosos.

RBC PRESENTS... Emerging Artists Project January 27, 2012

RBC has a proud history of commitment to projects and organizations that improve the quality of life in our communities. The RBC Emerging Artists Project is centred around helping young people of outstanding talent transition to successful professional careers. Across Canada, RBC Foundation supports over 30 RBC Emerging Artists Projects in all aspects of theatre and musical performance, plus writing, film-making, playwriting, design and choreography. You may not realize it, but you will seldom have a night at an opera, symphony or play in Canada without experiencing the work or performance of a former member of one of RBC's partner programs.

GUELPH SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA Andrew Chan - harpist February 24, 2012

The GSO will be at full strength to perform "New Worlds" - a concert of music written in North America. The centrepiece is of course Dvorak's well-loved Symphony No. 9 ("From the New World"). West Coast composer Michael Conway Baker wrote a concerto for harp which has been performed successfully in Vancouver by soloist Andrew Chan. This unusual music is both enjoyable and accessible and offers a new experience to local audiences. The concert opens with Oskar Morawetz's sparkling and energetic Carnival Overture.

MUSIC OF THE BRITISH ISLES' Weston Silver Band March 30, 2012

Renowned for their exciting concerts and dazzling virtuoso soloists, Weston Silver Band, Canada's award-winning 30 piece brass and percussion ensemble, performs a program exploring the rich musical heritage of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales. Don't miss this acclaimed British-style Brass Band, praised by critics as "stellar and entertaining".

FRENCH MASTERWORKS Guelph Symphony Orchestra April 27, 2012

Come and experience our elegant dress-up evening of joyful music with the Guelph Symphony Orchestra performing our 2011-12 series finale. The French Masterworks include Berlioz - Roman Carnival Overture, a Piano Concerto (soloist the winner of the GSO Concerto Competition) and Franck, Symphony No 1 in D Minor.
